Psalm 68 : 18-20

Glasgow

Thou hast, O Lord, most glorious ascended up on high;
And in triumph victorious led captive captivity:
Thou hast received gifts for men,
for such as did rebel;
Yea, ev'n for them, that God the Lord
in midst of them might dwell.

Bless'd be the Lord, who is to us
of our salvation God;
Who daily with his benefits
us plenteously doth load.
He of salvation is the God who is our God most strong;
And unto God the Lord from death
the issues do belong.

| Cong | Psalm 23 All | Crimond |
|------|--------------|---------|

The Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want.
 He makes me down to lie
 In pastures green: he leadeth me
 the quiet waters by.
 My soul he doth restore again;
 and me to walk doth make Within the paths of righteousness,
 ev'n for his own name's sake.

Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale,
 yet will I fear none ill:
 For thou art with me; and thy rod and staff me comfort still.
 My table thou hast furnished
 in presence of my foes;
 My head thou dost with oil anoint,
 and my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my life
shall surely follow me:
And in God's house for evermore
my dwelling-place shall be.

Cong Psalm 72 : 17-19 Miles Lane

His name for ever shall endure;
last like the sun it shall:
Men shall be bless'd in him, and bless'd
All nations shall him call.

Now blessed be the Lord our God,
the God of Israel,
For he alone doth wondrous works,
in glory that excel.
And blessed be his glorious name
to all eternity:
The whole earth let his glory fill.
Amen, so let it be.

All Psalm passages sung by the choir are taken from the 1950 Edition of the Psalter published by the R P Church of North America.
